

Zion at Prayer

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer

Second Sunday of Easter – April 29-May 5, 2019

Pray and confess out loud as much as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the verse, catechism, and hymn of the week.

Verse: Romans 6:9; John 20:22b

Alleluia. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. Alleluia. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. Alleluia.

The Catechism: As the head of the family should teach in a simple way to his household:

The Lord's Prayer - The Seventh Petition

But deliver us from evil

What does this mean?

We pray in this petition, in summary, that our Father in heaven would rescue us from every evil of body and soul, possessions and reputation, and finally, when our last hour comes, give us a blessed end, and graciously take us from this valley of sorrow to Himself in heaven.

Hymn of the Week: #483 With High Delight Let Us Unite

Thank you to all those who have worked with our confirmation class, especially Pastors Brown & Grimmer, Rich & Ann Found, Rob & Karen Ewing, Corey Thelen, the Elders, and also our Sunday school & midweek teachers, and their parents. Passing the faith on to the next generation is an important part of our mission here at Zion Lutheran Church.

With our Mission Fundraiser meal last Thursday we are able to send an extra $275 to each of our four missionaries. Thanks to all who served, those who donated, and Carol Geohring for arranging a Thrivent Action Team. We also received a match from the Thrivent Choice funds directed to Zion, thank you!

Thank you to Lyle Jerke for the lovely spring flowers in our windows. Also, thank you for the Thrivent Choice funds that covered the cost.

We also thank our Altar Guild and Elders for setting up and arranging the Easter Lilly cross and other decorations in our sanctuary for Holy Week and the Easter season.

Next Sunday, May 5 at 10:30am, we will present quilts to our high school graduates, wrapping them in a quilt and our prayers.
